

MRS. BOB SAYRE entertained last evening with a dinner party, followed by dancing at the Bornelek Hills Country Club. Covers were laid for the host, his mother, Mrs. H. H. Sayre, the Misses Dot McGhee, Cora Dyer, Frances Gorman, Madeline Colbert, Elizabeth Myers, Margaretta Graham, Joy Moore, Messrs. Cassius Byrne, William Potter, Bert Simpson, Lorenzo Love, Charles Anderson and James Thompson. Preceding the dinner the guests indulged in swimming.

Rev. and Mrs. Keith of Tishomingo, were guests in the city yesterday on a shopping tour.

Mrs. Frank Pierce has returned home from Colorado Springs, at which place she spent several weeks.

Mrs. E. F. Graham returned yesterday from a short visit made with friends in Fort Worth, Texas.

Miss Doris Westheimer left last night for New York, where she will enter her third year in Columbia University.

Miss Gertrude Alexander has returned from Clinton, where she was the guest several weeks of her sister, Mrs. McClain Rogers.

Ladies' Day at the Elks Home on North Washington Street will be observed Thursday afternoon from 5 to 7:30 o'clock. Miss Hunter will play.

Miss Julia Beavert, art supervisor in the city schools, has arrived from Durant and will assume her duties with the opening of the schools. This is Miss Beavert's second term with the Ardmore City Schools.

Mr. and Mrs. John Barnett, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Tallaferra ten days, have returned to their home in Mt. Pleasant, Texas.

Mr. F. M. Porter had as dinner guests last evening at the Country Club the Misses Louise Love, Helen Sayre, Mattie Claire Gano, Messrs. Suggs and Ernest Hendon.

Mrs. Roy Potter of Gainesville, will arrive Friday to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Potter, 302 F South-west. Mrs. Potter will entertain in her honor Friday afternoon.

Union Bible Study Class No. 5 will meet with Mrs. J. B. Champion, Fifth and North Washington, Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mrs. Beakmore will be leader.

Mrs. J. M. Hall arrived here Sunday from Durant. She will be with Miss Fern Ryburn's Millinery this season.

The Misses Frances and Alton McGhee, who have been making an extended visit in New York and Washington, arrived last evening for a visit with Mrs. Raymond P. Locke before returning to their home in Ardmore—Oklahoma.

Mr. Louis Turman is spending a few days in Durant, prior to leaving for Staunton, Va. En route to Staunton he will go via Washington, D. C., where he will be joined by Mr. Ben Carter. They will proceed to Staunton where they will enter Staunton Military Academy.

Mr. Charles Lamb returned yesterday from a motoring trip to Wichita Falls, Texas. He was accompanied home by his daughters, the Misses

Mary and Virginia Lamb, who have been the guests of friends in that city several weeks, and Miss Lorena Glen of Wichita Falls, who will visit here some time.

Circle No. 4 of the Broadway Methodist Church, held an interesting meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. W. Randol, when it was decided that a parcel post entertainment would be given Tuesday, September 16, at the home of Mrs. Randol. The next meeting of the Circle will be held at the home of Mrs. J. C. Thompson. Mrs. Randol served refreshments.

The many friends of Mr. Vivian Presnell will learn with pleasure that he returned yesterday from Gainesville where he underwent an operation about five weeks ago and that he is convalescent. Mr. and Mrs. Presnell accompanied him home. Mrs. Presnell has been with him during his stay there, while Mr. Presnell went down for the purpose of returning with them.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Galt will learn with regret that a telephone message from Mr. Galt states that Mrs. Galt's condition is not improved. Monday and Tuesday she was thought to be steadily improving, but a very restless night was spent and this morning her condition was again serious.

Divisions No. 1 and 2 of the First Christian Church held interesting meetings yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Rosa McLish and Mrs. H. S. Cox, respectively. After a business session a social hour was observed and the hostesses of each division served an ice course. Following the meeting at Mrs. McLish's, Division No. 1 proceeded to the home of Mrs. Cox, where assisted by Mrs. Mochlmann, Mrs. Cox as hostess of Division No. 2, served the visiting members with an ice course. All joined in the social hour which was thoroughly enjoyed.

Miss Grace Lawrence entertained yesterday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock at her home, 511 C Northwest

THE HIKER.

Distinctly ultra is this arrangement of tie and string belt. Please observe how smart is the checked fabric, green and white silk, with plain green border and collar. Another fall fad is to tie sweater girdles in the back.

In celebration of her tenth birthday, she was assisted by her mother, Mrs. J. F. Lawrence. Following the playing of numerous games, the guests were conducted to the dining room. The table was prettily arranged and held a big birthday cake which was decorated with small dolls, dressed in a charming array of gay colors. The cake was cut and each guest given a doll as souvenir of the happy occasion. An ice course was served to the hostess, assistant hostess, the Misses Madeline Sullivan, Lena Maud Slough, Marie Glenn, Corrine and Edwina Strauchen, Bethine Henry, Violet Boyd, Nannie Criddle, Jullene Westheimer, Rosa Lee Fishl, Dorothy Hardie, Edyth Cooper, Lena and Lois Weeks, Ouida Hunter, Daisy Lee Derich, Louise Lawrence, and Messrs. John Phillips and John Lawrence.

Yes, We are Ready —for the—

Style Show

THIS EVENING

Rain or shine, we will unvail our windows promptly at 7:30. At 8 o'clock our showing of Costumes, Dresses, Suits, Coats, Skirts and Blouses, we think unusual in smartness and design will be displayed on

Interesting Living Models

Many new garments will be exhibited on this occasion for the first time. Meet your friends at the

Women's Wear Store

126 West Street

G. M. Henley
SMART WEAR FOR WOMEN

126 West Street

DON'T FAIL TO READ THE WANT ADS

LIVING MODELS

WILL PROMINATE THE STAGE AT THE PALACE THEATRE

THIS EVENING PROMPTLY AT 9

One of the greatest attractions that will mark the opening of the Carter County Free Fair will be the Style Show at the Palace Theatre this evening at 8:15 and 9:30 o'clock. In addition to the splendid program featured by the managers of this popular playhouse. There will be a Special Style Exhibit of the season's smartest models in Suits, Coats, Dresses and Hats from our garment section. A display on living models showing the exclusiveness of the beautiful styles of these garments.

EVERY LADY IN ARDMORE AND ALL VISITING LADIES ARE URGED TO ATTEND THIS STYLE SHOW

Westheimer & Daube